Judas did it again!

The prestigious wine JUDAS, by Sottano Winery, was honored in the "Cathay Pacific Hong Kong International Wine & Spirits Competition 2012" for its vintage 2009 "Best Wine of the World" to pair the "Chicken Tikka" emblematic dish of Indian food, also known as one of the "national dish" of Britain for their great roots in the UK.

So, for the second time, JUDAS is awarded Best Wine of the World to accompany an international dish. Recall that in 2009 was honored for its 2006 vintage as the best companion of "Peking Duck", the most popular dish and spread of Chinese cuisine, which dates back to the early fifteenth century.

Meanwhile, expectations continue to rise for the HKTDC Hong Kong International Wine and Spirits Fair to be held in a few weeks, where Sottano Winery will participate with their awesome wines.

Congratulations to the "creators" for this deserved recognition, and we celebrate that quality remains the distinctive flavor of their wines.

Cheers!
